- It has been alleged that the National Congress of the Partito Comunista Italiano (PCI; Italian Communist Party) will again be postponed. The PCI Provincial Congresses, all formerly held at the same time, are now being crganized one after the other so as to permit the Servizio Ordine e Informazioni (SOI), the PCI information service, to take necessary security precautions.
- Each delegate to the Provincial Congresses is assigned a specific thems from which he must not deviate during his speech. Despite these precautions, the Cominform reportedly disapproves the early calling of the National Party Congress. For this reason PCI leaders believe that the stay of Palmiro Togliatti, Secretary-General of the PCI, in Moscow has been extended.
- Many defections and expulsions of Rome youths from the PCI for real and suspected sympathy with Aldo Cucchi and Valdo Magnani have taken 3. place. Members of the Settecamini Federazione Giovanile Comunista Italiana (FGCI; Italian Communist Youth Federation) Section, including its Secretary, Dante Novelli, former Comitato Assistenza Reduci e Soldati (CARS; Veterans and Soldiers Assistance Committee) activist, requesting more information concerning the presented a motion expulsions of Cucchi and Magnani since they were not satisfied with the Party version. As a result of this, on 20 February 1951, the Rome FGCI called a meeting to discuss the means with which to meet deviationism. PCI leaders are reportedly worried notwithstanding mention in Unita of the creation of new Sections and the adherence of numerous new members to the PCI.
- Party intellectuals represent the bulk of PCI cadres most subjected to unusual measures of vigilance by Federation leaders who fear further deviations from this group, which would cause grave damage to rot prestige and organization. Vigilance has been especially intensified
- prestige and organization. Vigilance has been especially intensified in Emilia and is causing a profound effect in many groups.

 The Party intellectuals reportedly condemn the work of the PCI leaders and actively criticize the PCI for its Cominformist policy. This criticism has assumed the character of "oratorical duels" during lessons or the policy of the policy.
